ADULT EVENTS & PROGRAMS

MUSIC FOR FLUTE AND PIANO

BY ANN ERWIN & EDITH ORLOFF

Sunday, March 22

2:00pm - 4:00pm

Celebrate Women's History Month and the Centennial of Women's Suffrage in the United States with flutist Ann Erwin and pianist Edith Orloff. Composers include Clara Schumann, Princess Anna Amalia of Prussia, Germaine Tailleferre, and Katherine Hoover.

CSUCI LECTURE SERIES:

SMOKEY THE BEAVER

Monday, March 9

6:30pm - 8:00pm

Beavers are native to California, from the high Sierras all the way down to the coast. Beaver dams play a key role in protecting ecosystems during drought and in regulating the spread of wildfire. This talk will explore what exactly beavers do, how they protect us from wildfire, and the current state of beaver policy in California. Presented by Dr. Emily Fairfax, Assistant Professor of Environmental Science & Resource Management.

VENTURA COUNTY

WRITERS SALON

Monday, March 9

Monday, March 23

6:30pm - 8:30pm

Looking for a fiction writing group that will indulge a high-class adventure, add spice to an innovative work of science fiction, or bring order and balance to a historical period piece? Look no further than the Ventura County Writers Salon. All genres of fiction are welcome.

SCBWI LIT MINGLE

Saturday, March 28

2:30pm - 4:30pm

Participants aged 18 and up are welcome to connect with other authors, learn about the craft of writing, and help build a supportive writing community. Hosted by the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators (SCBWI).
