Highlighted Programs & Events: Adults

Women's History Month: Mix It Up

Starting Tuesday, March 1 / Adult Reference Desk

We're mixing it up for Women's History Month. Learn about five women mixologists who have helped shape cocktail culture. We will feature their cocktail recipes in a special booklet. Raise a glass to all the women behind the bar!

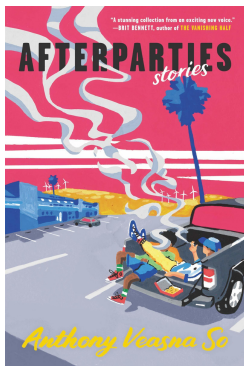

Booklets will be available at the Adult Reference Desk starting March 1.

Read Across America: Book Tasting

Saturday, March 5 / 11 a.m. / Community Room

Celebrate Read Across America by participating in a Book Tasting!

A book tasting is an opportunity to expose yourself to books, genres or authors that you might not consider otherwise. Each participant will be given a "menu" to record information about the books they look at, generating ideas for future reads. Meet fellow book connoisseurs along the way!

Literary Singles

Friday, March 18 / 4 p.m. / Front Courtyard

Stop swiping left and come check us out! Meet single readers between the ages of 20 and 40 at our first Literary Singles event. Our March selection is "Three Women of Chuck's Donuts," a short story by Anthony Veasna So. This story, featured in The New Yorker, is available in Afterparties, his debut collection. Pick up a copy of the story at the Adult Reference Desk. The group will meet in the courtyard by the front entrance of the library.

Amelia Earhart: In Her Own Words

Saturday, March 19 / 2 p.m. / Community Room

Celebrate Women's History Month with Roberta E. Bassin's one-woman performance of Amelia Earhart: In Her Own Words, which brings to life the famed aviatrix as she is about to leave on her round-the-world flight.

Celebrate Read Across America Storytime (Ages 0-5)

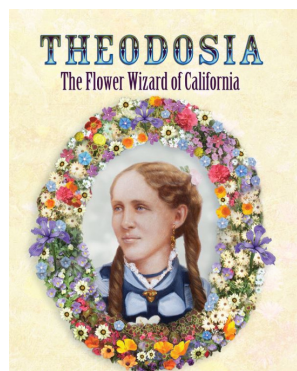

Wednesday, March 2 / 10:30 a.m. / Children's Area

Join us for a very special storytime to kick off our new 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten project. Families will learn how to lay the groundwork for pre-reading skills to get ready for kindergarten.

Spring Take-Home Craft

Starting Wednesday, March 9 / Children's Area

Pick up a seed egg carton kit at the Children's Desk and start growing your own flowers for spring.

Women's History Month Storytime

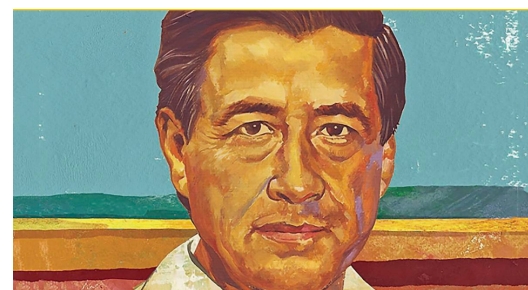

Saturday, March 19 / 11 a.m. / Children's Area

Celebrate Women's History Month with a storytime and craft to honor famous local horticulturist Theodosia Burr Shepherd. Shepherd created many flower species that are now familiar to all and is known as the "Female Luther Burbank." Use your artistic skills to create a fun flowerpot to grow flowers this spring. Register on our online Event Calendar.

Historical Spotlight: Cesar Chavez & Local Farming

Thursday, March 31 / 4 p.m. / Community Room

Honor Cesar Chavez by learning about his life and about farming in Ventura County with Students for Eco-Education and Agriculture (SEEAG), whose mission is to educate students about local farming in Ventura County.
