November Narratives: A Writing Workshop for Adults

Friday, November 1, 8 & 22 / 3 p.m. / Tech Lab

Unleash your creativity this November with our adult writing workshop! Whether you're a seasoned writer or just starting out, this class offers the perfect space to develop your skills. Through guided exercises and group discussions, you'll explore storytelling techniques, refine your writing and gain confidence in your voice. Join us for a month of inspiration and creative growth!

Little Seedlings: Gardening Basics for Kids & Adults

Saturday, November 2 / 2 p.m. / Homework Center

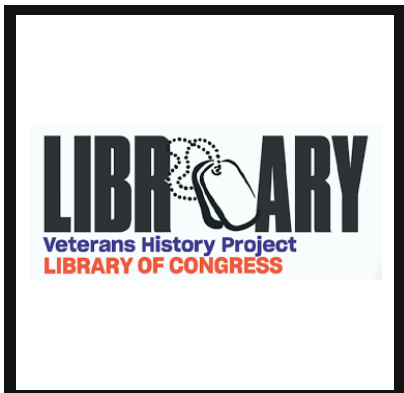

Join us each month for Little Seedlings, a fun and interactive gardening program for kids and adults! Learn the basics of gardening while focusing on a different California native, drought-resistant plant that you can grow at home. Whether you're new to gardening or looking to expand your green thumb, this program is perfect for all ages. Come get your hands dirty and take home your very own seeds to plant!

Veterans History Project Interviews

Mondays throughout November / All Day / Conference Room

Celebrate Veterans Day with the Camarillo Public Library all month long! Every Monday in November the Library will be conducting 30-minute interviews with U.S. military veterans. These interviews will then be sent to the Library of Congress's Veteran History Project, where they will be preserved and made accessible for future generations to hear firsthand accounts directly from veterans. To ensure an interview, register on our online Event Calendar. Library staff will follow up with an interview time and date.
